Dear Dave:

I am enclosing a copy of a letter of February 11, which I have asked Walter Rapp, the head of the Evidence Division here, to deliver to you in Washington. Anything you can do along the lines suggested in this letter will be greatly appreciated, and also be a real help to the cause.

As far as I can tell, everything necessary for Madeline's assignment to OCC has been done at this end, and the matter is now in the hands of the War Department in Washington. There was some delay here due primarily to necessity of clearance with Berlin, and to the fact that just about the time I arrived, a bunch of Civil Service employees bounced on OCC, demanding job classifications etc., etc. I finally had cleared here, a job classification for Madeline which should get her at least a CAF-8 and possibly a CAF-9. If Madeline hasn't heard definitely by the time you get this letter, please cable me to call you at a certain suggested time.

The job over here is a very tough one in many respects, but I believe it can be done and I will keep on pitching.

I am looking forward to seeing Madeline and wish you were coming over too.

Best wishes to both of you.

Sincerely,

Josiah E. DuBois, Jr.
