

WAR DEPARTMENT POSITION DESCRIPTION FIELD SERVICE		1. POSITION NO.
2. INSTALLATION OMGUS - OCCWC		5. TITLE
3. POSITION LOCATION Trial Team I, Farben		6. SERVICE	7. SERIES
		8. GRADE	9. NO.
		10. SIGNATURE OF ANALYST
		11. DATE ALLOCATED
		12. ADDITIONAL IDENTICAL TO THIS POSITION
4. (A) SUPERVISION RECEIVED, (B) SUPERVISION EXERCISED, (C) DUTIES OF POSITION			PERCENTAGE OF TIME ON EACH TASK
E. E. Minskoff, P-7 (On loan from General Counsel's Office, U. S. Treasury Department) In connection with the prosecution of the case of the United States against Carl Krauch, Hermann Schmitz, etc., officials of I. G. Farben, Mr. Minskoff has overall responsibility for the preparation and presentation of Count III of the Indictment, which count charges the I. G. Farben defendants (1) with participation in the enslavement of prisoners of war, of nationals of conquered countries, including women and children, and of racial and political minorities; (2) with manufacturing and supplying poison gases and other pharmaceuticals to officials of the SS for the purpose of experimentation and extermination of enslaved persons in concentration camps throughout Europe; and (3) with participation in the program for mass murder formulated by the Nazi Regime and carried out so effectively at the Auschwitz Concentration Camp. In connection with the foregoing, he has full responsibility for the examination, by analysis, evaluation, and ultimate development of the evidence proving the culpability of the I. G. Farben defendants. The evidence referred to includes documentary evidence as well as that obtained through interrogations of defendants, I. G. Farben personnel other than defendants, and witnesses such as inmates of concentration camps, etc. The selection of evidence includes a decision as to relevance, competence, and materiality, but also a determination of the probative value and legal effect of the documents and interrogations. He has responsibility also for procuring the evidence in support of Count III, and to this end supervises investigators and interrogators in the initiation and preparation of field trips and other specific projects. In addition he is charged with the responsibility for presenting different phases of the Farben case when it comes up for trial before the Military Tribunals, by conducting the direct and re-direct examination of prosecution witnesses and the cross-examination of defense witnesses, and by handling the introduction of documentary evidence. In connection with Count III of the trial of the case and the preparation therefor, he is responsible for the preparation of briefs covering all			