

time, this bank was overrun with questions from its clients as to whether they should keep their German stocks, the representative of the bank thought this would be valuable factual information for their customers and he ordered several hundred copies of the article for which he paid the regular price."

At the same time, Ilgner and Gattineau, acting on Lee's advice, conceived a line which went to the Bayer Company in New York, for "personnel and collaborators." "We ask you expressly to make use of this data to the end that all co-workers become familiar with these economic and political conceptions..."

"PARLIAMENTARY GOVERNMENT, LACK OF LEADERSHIP, COMMUNISTS AND MARXISTS, HAD LED GERMANY TO THE ABYSS. WITHIN, CIVIL WAR WAS SMOULDERING...ABROAD, GERMANY WAS A PLAYTHING IN THE HANDS OF THE SIGNATORIES OF THE TREATY OF VERSAILLES...ACHIEVEMENT TOOK THE PLACE OF PATRONAGE AND PARTY MEMBERSHIP AS A MEANS OF SECURING OFFICE: ORDER AND HONESTY AGAINST BECAME THE GUIDING PRINCIPLES IN GERMAN PUBLIC LIFE...PEACE WAS RESTORED AND THE PEOPLE COULD GO ABOUT THEIR AFFAIRS WITHOUT FEAR FOR LIFE AND PROPERTY...AS TIME GOES ON, ALL BOYCOTT AND ATROCITY PROPAGANDA WILL BE SHATTERED AGAINST THE PEACEFUL INTENTIONS OF THE GERMAN PEOPLE..."

Under score: DOUBLE-INDENT
Within a few months, a small subcommittee of the ~~American~~ Unamerican Activities Committee went to New York City to interrogate Ivy Lee. At the hearing Lee was asked:

"The material sent here by the I.G. was propoganda spread by authority of the German government?"

"Right," Lee answered.

"And it has nothing to do with their business relations just now?"

"That is correct."

And Burnham Carter, Lee's assistant, had given this testimony in the ~~same~~ Subcommittee

Record which now confronted Ilgner in the witness box: