Dear Mickey:

I am writing to you concerning the availability of Ralph W. Wescott, a lawyer in New Jersey, for a job as a judge on one of the Tribunals here.

Wescott is a man in his 50's, with whom my brother and I have been sharing office space for several years in Camden, New Jersey.

He is the present Register of Deeds in Camden County. This job he took after he was defeated for Congress on the Democratic ticket.

Wescott has had more than usual trial experience in criminal law; has a general familiarity of the German language, and has travelled in Germany; has a deep knowledge of history and economics based on wide and intensive reading. He has been a Supreme Court Commissioner in New Jersey for many years.

I understand that he is in a position where he would be willing to make the necessary commitments to serve throughout the trials, and that his place as Register in the Deeds' Office could be readily filled by his deputy.

You can get in touch with Wescott by addressing him at the Wilson Building, Camden, New Jersey. (Camden, 4-8480).

Sincerely,

Josiah E. DuBois, Jr.
Deputy Chief of Counsel
