PARAPHRASE OF TELEGRAM RECEIVED

FROM: Bern
TO: Secretary of State, Washington
DATE: July 3, 1943, 9 a.m.
NUMBER: 3929

Referring to Legation's 3567 of June 14, 1943
and 3709 of June 22, 1943.

James, American Red Cross representative, has been supplied by International Red Cross with memorandum making following statements which are pertinent to the Riegner plan: a) A tax of 4 billion leis has recently been imposed on Jews in Rumania by the Rumanians. Filderman (reference Legation's 3567, paragraph one B) was deported when he protested that it was completely impossible for Jews to raise this sum. According to Intercross this new persecution will make it very difficult to raise funds in Rumania for relief; b) the Rumanian Government has informed Intercross, so the latter states, that QUOTE there is nothing to prevent the forwarding of supplies and financial relief to Jews in Transnistria UNQUOTE; c) to determine practicability of such relief for the eighty thousand Jews in Transnistria Intercross is considering the possibility of making a study on the spot with particular reference to questions of need, transport, prices, purchases, distribution and control of such relief; financial questions, transfers and organization of collaboration with the Red Cross of Rumania.
