

last party there &
the first copy was of many former business in the State Dept, the second copy, was the 3rd, Russell, Eubank, Mythen ——— and finally Tremaine. Before the Party staff left, I was asked:

—————
—————
—————

The Party in went first to "negotiate" with the arms to We arrived in Rotterdam a few days after the P-dall.
^{for the better able to understand}

Caplan had begun. The State Dept had failed even to list reparations on the agenda. From the

This was not merely a countermove to Russia's demands ^{and the number of reparations} but a few weeks earlier that they pay 20 billion dollars in reparations, the bulk of which would go to the Soviet Union. (Already the Soviet had been told this was "impossible" & refused to throw this body as part of the total). Then that was as it was to the last U.S. state and then in the but began. There were very many while they to avoid and but was - great eye or more or less are now.