INTER-OFFICE MEMORANDUM

These interrogations were given up with the case, on 7 May, 1947. It is hoped that all of the remaining cases will be tried before the hearing is held under the new law.

SUBJECT : Re-assignment of Interrogators.

TO : Mr. Walter Rapp, Director,
Evidence Division

Copies to : Mr. DuBois (323)
Mr. Amchan (252)
Mr. Charmatz (309)
Miss Mayer (247)

1. After you informed me that it was necessary to reassign some of the interrogators working on the Farben case to other cases, I discussed the matter with a number of our lawyers who have been working most closely with the interrogators. Any withdrawal of interrogators between now and the beginning of the hearing will cause serious problems for the Farben Trial Team particularly because we relied upon retaining all these interrogators at the time of the recent reorganization, when both the Krupp and Dresdner Bank Trial Teams acquired additional personnel. Moreover, all the interrogators have specialized in one or more fields. It will not be easy and in some cases it will not be possible for a new interrogator to conduct interrogations in some of these fields for a long time.

2. However, Mr. Charmatz has agreed that Mr. Katcher's transfer would be the least injurious to the Trial Team, since Mr. Charmatz and some of the analysts working with him are competent to do interrogation, even although they are overloaded with other work. Since Mr. Lewald has specialized in spoliation in Austria and Czechoslovakia and since this aspect of the case is fairly well developed, I would suggest him as the next case for transfer. However, it would be very helpful if he could carry out a scheduled interrogation in Austria - and if it were understood that he could be recalled for short periods to follow up matters in his special field in the future, regardless of where he is assigned.

3. The other four interrogators (Messrs. Von Halle, Cooper, Miller and Verber) are intricate parts of the Trial Team and their transfer at this time is truly a serious matter. Particularly since Mr. Verber has been working for Miss Mayer, who will be in the States for several more weeks, I trust very much that any transfer of Mr. Verber will be held in obedience until after I return from England, and if possible until the matter can be talked over with Mr. DuBois and Miss Mayer. As you know the other
