

April 23, 1946

My dear Mr. Secretary:

Pursuant to our conversation early this month, I herewith submit my resignation as Assistant to the Secretary of the Treasury, effective at the close of business on April 30, 1946.

As I told you, I plan to resume the practice of law in Camden, New Jersey, which I left at the request of the Treasury Department in January 1941.

It is with many regrets that I leave the Treasury, and I am deeply grateful for the many opportunities which have been afforded me while here to render service to my country.

If there is any way in which I can be of help to you on any special matters which may arise from time to time, I will be very glad to do what I can.

Sincerely,

Josiah E. DuBois, Jr.

Honorable Fred M. Vinson
Secretary of the Treasury
Washington, D. C.
