

Mr. Riegelman from State called Mr. Luxford in Paul's office, 12:30 P.M. December 21, 1943:

Riegelman: I have at last run this thing down and I have it on my desk now - rather, a copy of it.

Lux: Has it been paraphrased?

Riegelman: No.

Lux: What's it about?

Riegelman: What it really is is a message for the Under Secretary and for Stephen Wise. It is for the Under Secretary referring to our 2314 of October 5th and related memos. It says, and I will read it quickly, that the following is transmitted for your information and for transmission to Rabbi Stephen Wise in your discretion. Mass execution in Poland now confirmed by different sources. One reports 6000 killed today in Poland. Before being killed they are being required to be stripped of all clothing which is then sent to Germany. Remainder are now confined in 50 ghettos, particularly in smaller towns and particularly transformed into ghettos. A certain number of Polish and deported Jews are in labor camps in Poland. News is obtained from some people in these camps and the Reisenstok, but generally speaking, no news from the ghettos. The situation of the Reisenstok is comparatively better than the ghettos. The Reisenstok is an organization formed by the Jews and is a self-governed community, but the International Red Cross is not allowed to send delegates to the Reisenstok. With regard to the situation in Germany, reports from Berlin at the end of November state that the deportations are continuing. There are special agents of the Gestapo from Vienna where the deportations are
