

PARAPHRASE OF TELEGRAM RECEIVED

FROM: AMLEGATION, Bern
TO: Secretary of State
DATED: June 14, 1943
NUMBER: 3657.

CONFIDENTIAL

SECTION IV

(C) With reference to paragraph no. 3 of Department's telegram, Riegner has stated that concentration camp (message garbled) is west of Pauinbasses Pyrenees about 40 kilometers and is not for children but adults.

(d) Funds are needed in France to favor departure illegally of young Jews via Spain (which cost per person is estimated at 15,000, which leaves French franc balance of 30,000) to assist Jewish political personalities in hiding, and for assistance to Jewish children who are hidden by non-Jewish families, according to statement of Riegner.

Such activities up to the present time have been financed by relief funds transferred from the United States before its entry into the war, but that French Jewish underground finances have almost all been used up. Riegner says that an attempt to make arrangements for financing Jewish underground activities is at present being worked out by Jarblum, President of the Federation of French Jewish Societies, who has recently arrived in Switzerland. It is proposed by
