

PARAPHRASE OF TELEGRAM RECEIVED

FROM: AMLEGATION, Bern

TO: Secretary of State, Washington

DATED: June 14, 1 p.m.

NUMBER: 3567

CONFIDENTIAL

(SECTION VI)

F. The connection between the American Jewish and the World Jewish Congress is so close that Riegner considers that he is acting on behalf of both associations even though he has only been appointed officially as a representative of WJC. According to his statement, WJC, New York, has instructed him to get all possible information about the situation of the Jews in Europe and he has therefore established contacts with trusted intermediaries in enemy territory. (The question has been raised by the Legation as to whether general ruling number eleven would require WJC or AJC to obtain license for any communication with persons in enemy territory).

G. The British Legation informed our Legation of the present proposals for disbursing funds through the United Nations Missions in Switzerland to the International Red Cross to allow limited supplies of food to be purchased and distributed by the Red Cross in the occupied countries of the United Nations. Since the proposed plan provides for such
