

CASE VI

Final Plea Silcher

" Overall Picture of I.G. Farbenindustrie Aktiengesellschaft. "

Summary compiled for the Press.

	Page
Not a complete overall picture, but only frame and background	1-2
Era of chemistry. Liberation from the dependency on materia. Pioneer achievements of I.G.	2-4
Every industrial achievement is subject to abuse by man. Atomic energy.	4-5
Lecture by Planck on purpose and bounds of exact sciences	5-6
Chemistry as industry of basic materials. 3 Nobel prizes; 9 Grand prix awarded in 1937 at the Paris World Exhibition, partly awarded for achievements and products, which, in the opinion of the Prosecution, prove Farben's planning and preparation for aggressive wars	6-7
Aims and activities of Farben as quoted from the opening statement by General Taylor	7-8
Selection of products and achievements of Farben.	8-12
Business principle: only first-class quality. System of advising customers. Deliveries to the whole world	12-13
Promotion of industrialization of other countries. Alliance of research, science, technology and enterprise. Chemical research the very nerve of modern industrial chemistry and its law of life	14-15
Great value of patents, processes, experiences etc. of Farben	15-16
Participation of the whole world in these riches	16