

Table of Contents

1. Program to prevent Germany from starting a World War III.
2. Reparations mean a powerful Germany.
3. Economic restitution by Germany to United Nations.
4. It is a fallacy that Europe needs a strong industrial Germany.
5. Why the resources of the Ruhr should be locked up and the equipment removed.
6. How British industry would benefit by proposed program.
7. The well-being of the German economy is the responsibility of the Germans and not of the Allied Military authorities.
8. What kind of Allied control over the German economy is necessary?
9. What to do about German reeducation.
10. German militarism can not be destroyed by destroying Nazism alone.
11. Punishment of war crimes and treatment of dangerous groups.

Maps

- (1) Boundaries of partitioned Germany.
- (2) Coal resources of the Ruhr and of Europe.

Charts

- (1) Coal resources of Ruhr and Europe compared.
- (2) Iron sources of Ruhr and Europe compared.
- (3) Trade pattern of Europe.