FLICK CASE ---- REPORT No. 7

DAILY REPORT - TRIBUNAL NO. 4 - FLICK CASE

Evidence.

The Prosecution completed the introduction of documents in Book VA, bringing the total number of exhibits to 163.

After the morning recess, Vladamir Rittenberg was called as a Prosecution witness. Rittenberg was a French Jew arrested by the Gestapo in late 1943 and eventually assigned to work in the Groeditz of Mittelstahl in 1945. The witness asked to be excused at the afternoon recess because of his health and will resume his direct examination in the morning session on Tuesday.

Law and Procedure.

No significant developments.
