FLICK CASE - REPORT No. 10

DAILY TRIAL REPORT - TRIBUNAL NO. 4 - FLICK CASE

Evidence:

Dr. Kranzbuehler continued the cross-examination of Traver, and was followed by Dr. Dix and Dr. Siemers. The cross-examination was not completed until the end of the morning session.

In the afternoon session, prosecution called Evdokia Voytovitch to the stand. She was a farm worker in the Ukraine and was arrested in 1943 as a slave worker, eventually being assigned to the Rombacher Huettenwerke, in late 1943 or early 1944 where she stayed until Rombacher was taken by the American forces. She testified as to the compulsory nature of her work, transport conditions and the conditions at the Rombacher plant, both in the factory and in the workers' camp. Dr. Kranzbuehler completed his cross-examination. Dr. Siemers was in process of cross-examination at the end of the day.

Law and Procedure:

None.
